

On Monday 16 March, the Government gave additional advice to reduce social interaction between people in order to reduce the transmission of coronavirus (COVID-19). In light of this Buckinghamshire County Council is temporarily closing some of its libraries.

The following community libraries will be closed until further notice

Beacon Villages
Bucks County Reserve Stock
Castlefield
Chalfont St Giles
Chalfont St Peter
Farnham Common
Flackwell Heath
Gerrards Cross
Great Missenden
Haddenham
Iver Heath
Little Chalfont
Long Crendon
Micklefield
Stokenchurch
Wendover
West Wycombe
Wing
Winslow

The following libraries remain open until further notice but with a reduced service

Amersham
Aylesbury
Beaconsfield
Bourne End
Buckingham
Burnham
Chesham
Hazlemere
High Wycombe
Marlow
Princes Risborough

From Monday 23rd March these sites will only be open to provide access to computer facilities, wifi and to support residents with information and signposting.

Book borrowing is now suspended and there will be no group activities or meetings held at this time.

Until further notice, please follow the government advice and unless your visit to the library is unavoidable try not to come to the library.

We are sorry for this interruption in services and are doing their best to limit the impact this may have users with the following

- There will be no charges for overdue materials for the time being
- Any memberships due to expire before 30 June will be extended so membership will not lapse
- Loans will be extended until 30 June so you won't need to return your books before then.

Allowing new member's online membership to access to a full range of online resources and eBooks
